

Geoff Story.....

Geoff is a quiet person and takes great pleasure from painting, Geoff expresses himself through his work and paints in a variety of abstract ways and has now started to sell some of his work.

He is a very active individual and likes to be on the go every day, he enjoys quad biking, and ten pin bowling and walking along the sea front.

Geoff has worked in a number of voluntary placements to help him gain the skills and experience he will need in his chosen profession.

He currently works on a voluntary basis helping steam press bedding, washes vans and hovers the halls and vacant rooms. He also has paid part time work as part of a house keeping team where his main duties are hoovering large function suites; Geoff enjoys his work and although he only works 4 hours per week he has become an invaluable member of the team.

Geoff enjoys doing repetitive things and is looking for another part time job that would allow him to do this.
