Money Advice

Money Advice

Part of Scotwest's vision is to help deliver better financial lives for our Members.

Scotwest is here to help our Members live their best financial life. We have worked with the Money Helper to provide a series of articles to give you advice and information on making the most of your money and dealing with debt before it becomes a problem:

Help if you're struggling with debt

Getting informal help to manage your money

How to prioritise your debts

Money problems and poor mental wellbeing

FCA Smaller Business Practitioner Panel

Scotwest's CEO Frances McCann recently appointed to the FCA Smaller Business Practitioners Panel.

We are delighted that credit unions will be represented on this important panel that helps shape future regulation for the financial sector.

You can find out more about the Panel and what they do here.

Scotwest Director Training Academy

Help shape the development and continued success of your credit union by signing up to our Director Training Academy and stand for election to the Scotwest Board.

We would be delighted to hear from members who would be interested in undertaking tailored training for future involvement in the Scotwest Board of Directors.
